

ART INSTALLATIONS & OPEN HOUSE

NOW 3rd Thursday at The Cigar Factory

Tuesday, September 3, 2013

WHEN: September 19, 2013 | 5:30 to 8:30 p.m.
On view through October 5th

WHERE: The Cigar Factory Studios and Gallery
707 N. 4th Street, Allentown PA

WHAT: NOW - A series of Third Thursday
exhibitions

(Photo of installation by Christine Soccio)

FUSE Art Infrastructure is proud to present a series of Third Thursday exhibitions at the Cigar Factory Studios and Gallery.

The NOW series emphasizes on a snapshots of the artists' production at a point in time. It is an opportunity for the artists to "mark time" whether it is a personal artistic statement, a reflection on current events or a revisited old idea and presented "now" thus giving new meaning. It is a broad approach to presenting art. Each artist's "marker" derives from highly individual concerns and is presented in separate studios at the Cigar Factory Artists Studio building.

The building features private, spacious artist's studios with high ceilings, natural light and an opportunity for exhibitions and ongoing project development in an inspiring urban setting.

For the inaugural Third Thursday NOW show FUSE is pleased to present installations by:

Alexander Yaya | Christine Soccio | Jamie Cabreza | Steven D. Condra
Ana Hamilton | Anthony Smith | Femi J. Johnson | Flavia Berindoague
Gregory Coates | MOP$ (Jessica Echevarria) | Rigo Peralta
Tomohiro Yagi | Victoria Snyder

For more information please get in touch with us.

fuse@allentownfuse.org

Kiki Nienaber Director, FUSE art infrastructure

Special thanks to George Huang, Gene di Palmer and Jeff Richards from the Cigar Factory

< previous

next >