

Yonkers Arts Weekend transforms city into a vibrant creative hub

From the waterfront to local galleries, artists and performers are taking over public spaces with a mix of live shows, exhibits and hands-on activities designed to engage residents and visitors alike.

Aaron Brown • May 16, 2026, 4:38 PM • Updated 1 day ago

Share:

Yonkers is turning into a citywide canvas this weekend as the 12th annual Yonkers Arts Weekend brings together art, music and culture across neighborhoods throughout the city.

From the waterfront to local galleries, artists and performers are taking over public spaces with a mix of live shows, exhibits and hands-on activities designed to engage residents and visitors alike.

At the center of the celebration is the Carpet Mills Arts District, where visitors can explore a wide range of programming, including YoHo Artists open studios, poetry events, mural displays and collaborative art experiences.

The weekend highlights the city's growing arts scene while creating opportunities for local artists and creators to showcase their work and connect with the community.

Yonkers Arts Weekend runs through Sunday, with events taking place across the city.