

Comingup

Earth Day in Irvington. The village celebrates the 40th anniversary of Earth Day by transforming Main Street, the Old Croton Aqueduct, the waterfront, and the public library into a "village green" with footprint-friendly activities for all ages on Saturday, April 17, 11 a.m.-6 p.m., rain or shine. Increase awareness about local sustainable behaviors at the green vendor fair, farmers market, eco-friendly demonstrations, environmental-themed movie, and more. Call 591-7070 or visit www.irvingtonny.gov.

"Bugsy Malone" in Irvington. Broadway Training Center of Westchester presents a musical adaption of this tongue-in-cheek tribute to the 1920s gangster flick at Town Hall Theater, 85 Main St., April 23 and 24 at 7 p.m. and April 25 at 3 p.m. Tickets: $20 for adults, $14 for seniors and students. Call 591-6602 or e-mail boxoffice@irvingtonny.gov or visit www.irvingtontheater.com.

Photography in Irvington. As village resident Scott Cooper takes his audience on a tour of waterfalls across North America at the public library, 12 South Astor St., on Thursday, April 22, 7:30 p.m., he also teaches how to take optimal photographs with a single-lens-reflex camera. Call 591-7840 or visit www.irvingtonlibrary.org.

Studio tour in Yonkers. Local artists at YOHO Center for the Arts, 540/578 Nepperhan Ave., open their studios to display a wide variety of works on Saturday and Sunday, April 17-18, noon-5 p.m. Free. Call (212) 317-1423, ext. 601 or visit YOHOartists.com.

A mosaic urn by Irvington's Joanne Leibman is on display in the "Matters of the HeART" exhibit at Greenburgh Town Hall until May 5.

Ongoing

Art in Greenburgh. Greenburgh Town Hall, 177 Hillside Ave., hosts "Matters of the HeART," featuring original works by Westchester residents age 55 and older. The paintings, drawings, mixed media, collages, photographs, and sculptures will be on display through May 5 and then move to Andrus on Hudson senior residence in Hastings. The exhibit can be viewed 9 a.m.-5 p.m. business days, and prior to public meetings in Town Hall. Call 682-1574 or 271-3878.

Sat 10

Haiti fundraiser in Hastings. Dance the night away from 7 to 10 at the James Harmon Community Center, 44 Main St., with Haitian and Latin American music and drumming by the group Boku. Also, Pamela McKenna leads some fun Zumba routines. The Hastings Girl Scouts serve free refreshments. Suggested donation: $25 payable to the American Red Cross by check or money order (no cash). Call 478-2380 or e-mail ellenkelly@gmail.com.

Grateful Strings in Hastings. This Grateful Dead homage band plays at The First Unitarian Society of Westchester, 25 Old Jackson Ave., 7:30 p.m. Organic refreshments will be available. Tickets: $20 for adults, $15 for seniors and students. Call 478-2710 or visit www.evenbrite.com/event/565525502 or www.westchesteruu.org.

Westchester Jazz Orchestra in Irvington. Hear the world premiere of "Flow: In Celebration of the Hudson River," a three-movement suite by artistic director Mike Holoher, at 8 p.m. at Town Hall Theater, 85 Main St. The concert, titled "Americana," also features blues, folk, and field songs, and is preceded by a talk about this first original commission at 7:15. Tickets: $35 for adults, $30 for seniors, $5 for students. Call 591-6602 or 861-9100 or visit www.irvingtontheater.com or www.westjazzorch.org.

Screening in Irvington. The "Best of" Film Series at Town Hall Theater, 85 Main St., presents "Rondine" by Puccini at 11:30 a.m. Pre-concert lecture at 11. Tickets: $20. Call 591-6602 or e-mail boxoffice@irvingtonny.gov or visit www.irvingtontheater.com.

Lecture in Dobbs Ferry. The Westchester County Genealogical Society brings back Toni McKeen to discuss "The Vitaly Important Vital Records and How They Can Help You" at Aldersgate Methodist Church, 600 Broadway, at 10 a.m. Refreshments and genealogical networking begin at 9:30. Free and open to nonmembers. Call 953-9173 or 345-7163 or visit <http://www.rootsweb.com/~nywcgs/>.

Art opening in Tarrytown. An exhibit of new works by Francoise Collandre opens with a reception, 5-8 p.m., at the Canfin Gallery, 39 Main St. The exhibit continues until April 25. Gallery hours: Tuesday-Sunday, 11 a.m.-5 p.m. Call 332-4554 or visit www.CanfinGallery.com.

Jackie Mason in Tarrytown. This legendary comedian brings his stand-up routine to The Music Hall, 13 Main St., at 8 p.m. Tickets: $55, $45. Call (877) 840-0457 or visit www.tarrytownmusicall.org.

Hatchlings in Yonkers. Learn about animals that lay eggs and go on a scavenger hunt to find an egg to decorate at Beczak Environmental Education Center, 35 Alexander St., 11 a.m.-noon and 1-2 p.m. Appropriate for ages 5-12. Registration required for this free program. Call 377-1900, ext. 13, e-mail dsukup@beczak.org or visit www.beczak.org.

Oyster gardening in Yonkers. Find out what is

Learn about the Hudson River's oyster gardens tomorrow (April 10) in Yonkers.

Out & Ab

THE RIVERTOWNS EN

happening to New York City's waters and why oysters are vital to the ecological well-being of the Hudson River at Beczak Environmental Education Center, 35 Alexander St., 7 p.m. Admission: $5. Call 377-1900, ext. 13, e-mail dsukup@beczak.org or visit www.beczak.org.

"Open Wide" in Scarsdale. Learn about snakes and lizards during a hands-on presentation for the whole family at the Greenburgh Nature Center, 99 Dromore Road, 11 a.m. Fee: $2 for members, $6 for nonmembers. Call 723-3470 or visit www.greenburghnaturecenter.org.

Danceworks in Valhalla. The dance company of Westchester Community College celebrates its 30th anniversary with a series of performances in the college's Academic Arts Theatre, 75 Grasslands Road, tonight at 8 p.m. and tomorrow at 3 p.m. Dobbs Ferry residents Rachyl Appelbaum-Sloan and Robert Appelbaum are among the performers. Tickets: $12 for general admission, $7 for children, students, and senior citizens. Call 606-6262.

Double bill in White Plains. The Walkabout Clearwater Coffeehouse presents Emma's Revolution and Sara Thomsen at Memorial United Methodist Church, 250 Bryant Ave. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. for open seating. Prior to the performance at 7:30, take part in the "Teachabout" songfest. Tickets: $17.50 for adults in advance, $20 at the door; $15 for students; $8 for children ages 6-12 in advance, $10 at the door. Order tickets online at www.brownpapertickets.com or call (800) 838-3006. For information, call 242-0374 or visit www.walkaboutclearwater.org.

Urban jazz in White Plains. ArtsWestchester's new concert series kicks off with "Coffee House Rock" featuring Wali Ali and The Tambourine Band at The Arts Exchange, 31 Mamaroneck Ave., 8 p.m. Tickets: $20 in advance, $25 on the day of the show, $5 discount for students, seniors, and ArtsWestchester members; each ticketholder is entitled to two free beverages. Call 428-4220, ext. 223 or visit www.artswestchester.org.

Sun 11

Lenape lecture in Dobbs Ferry. The Dobbs Ferry Historical Society hosts "The Lenape: Lower New York's First Inhabitants" at the public library, 55 Main St., 2 p.m. Anthropologist David Oestreicher will touch on local history, describing the large Lenape settlement at Wickers Creek in Dobbs Ferry in the 1600s. His free talk is sponsored by the New York Council for the Humanities. For more information, call 693-8498.

Environmental recovery in Hastings. Join the Saw Mill River Coalition in the parking lot at Exit 13 (Farragut Avenue) northbound on the Saw Mill River Parkway, 9:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m., for vine cutting along the banks of the Saw Mill River. Rain date: April 18. Volunteers under age 16 require adult supervision. Call 375-2151, visit www.sawmillrivercoalition.org or e-mail free-atree@hotmail.com.

Concert in Hastings. RiverArts Music presents its annual faculty concert at The First Reformed

Artistic director and conductor Mike Holoher leads tomorrow (April 10) in Irvington.

Church, 18 Farragut Ave., 3 p.m. Suggested donation: $10 for adults, $5 for children; proceeds benefit the scholarship fund. Call 476-2321 or visit www.riverarts.org.

Lovin' Spoonful in Irvington. This group from the 1960s brings their hits, such as "Hot Town" Summer in the City," to Town Hall Theater, 85 Main St., 7:30 p.m. Tickets: $65, $60, $50. Call 591-6602 or e-mail boxoffice@irvingtonny.gov or visit www.irvingtontheater.com.

"Aerialscapes" in Sleepy Hollow. Opening reception 1-4 p.m. for a new exhibit of landscape paintings in oil and acrylic by Toni Silber-Deliverie at The Art Gallery at the Rockefeller State Park Preserve, Route 117. The exhibit continues until May 8. Gallery hours: 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. daily. Parking fee: $6 per vehicle. Call 631-1470, ext. 0 or visit www.friendsrock.org.

"The Carnivorous Kitchen" in Pocantico Hills. A panel of local producers explore how raising meat and fish sustainably can benefit animals, the environment, and consumers at Stone Barns Center for Food and Agriculture, 630 Bedford Road, 2-3:30 p.m. Admission: $5. Ticket-holders can shop at a mini farm market featuring sustainable meat and seafood after the discussion. Call 366-6200 or visit www.stonebarnscenter.org.

Mon 12

Literary feast in Elmsford. "Books and Cooks" will bring together tastings by chefs from local restaurants and conversations with several of Westchester's notable authors at the Greenburgh Public Library, 300 Tarrytown Road, 6-9 p.m. Tickets: $99 to benefit the Greenburgh Public Library Foundation. Call 747-0519 or visit www.greenburghlibraryfoundation.org.