"They just can't keep a good pervert down," reads an introductory description for Day of the Pervert, a unique artistic event being held at 10 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 1, at The Alternative Gallery in Allentown.

The program, which organizers say is returning "darker and more twisted than ever," features live music, psychedelic body paint, trippy visuals and Day of the Dead girls.

Highlights include burlesque performers Lilith Noir, Molly Mass Acre and one of the original Suicide Girls, Squeak (performing on an aerial hoop), as well as music by 100 Alan Watts (a band that exists for one night only).

The Alternative Gallery is a non-profit art center that provides a full art gallery, artist studio spaces, performance space and educational classes, open to anyone.

Tickets for the 21-and-over event are $10, advance; $15, at door.

Doors open at 8 p.m. The Alternative Gallery is located inside the Cigar Factory at 707 N. Fourth St., Suite 103. Info: 610-462-3283 or TheAlternativeGallery.com.
