

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

YOHO Welcomes Constructive Painter Schroeter

January 18, 2012 (Yonkers, NY) Recently emerging into the YOHO scene is David Schroeter, a painter of compelling abstract cityscapes and attendee of the Bronx Museum of the Arts' Artist in the Marketplace (AIM) program. Architectural themes and subjects in various stages of construction and deconstruction make up the bulk of David's work, and his use of dramatic angles and bold colors result in stunning pieces that resonate with the viewer. He is currently working on the Polis series and is looking forward to having his paintings featured at YOHO and the upcoming AIM exhibition.

David will work from studio 549A at 540 Nepperhan Avenue in Yonkers. To see samples of his paintings visit www.davidhschroeter.com, and for more information about YOHO please contact George Huang at (212) 317 – 1423, ext. 601, or visit www.yohoartists.com.